

NEW YORK TIMES

DEC 21 1947

Agency

FOREIGN POLICY ELECTION

President, Chairman Renamed,
10 Directors Chosen

The Foreign Policy Association, Inc., announced yesterday the election of ten New Yorkers to its board of directors. Eustace Seligman of New York was re-elected chairman of the board of directors, and Dr. John W. Nason was re-elected president.

The ten new directors are:

C. Waller Barrett, chairman, executive committee, North Atlantic and Gulf Steamship Company.

Gerald F. Beal, president, J. Henry Schroder Banking Corporation.

Benjamin J. Bottenwieser, partner, Rubin, Loeb & Co.

Brooks Harlow, general insurance broker.

S. R. Jackson, lawyer.

George Kregler, executive assistant to chairman of board, Standard Oil Company (N. J.).

Lewis A. Lapham, executive vice president, Grace Line.

William A. Lydgate, partner, Earl Newson & Co.

Henry S. Wingate, president, International Nickel Company, Inc.

Walter Reid Wolf of Joseph Walker & Sons.

25X1A9a

CPYRGHT